Worship on the Waterfront welcomes Phil Stacy at the Grand Haven Waterfront Stadium at 7:30 tonight (rain or shine). This 2007 American Idol finalist serves Jesus Christ through his powerful vocals that bring the message to life. There is no cost – an offering will be taken. For more information, call 616-842-6600 or go to www.worshiponthewaterfront.org.

School Supplies for Pullman Elementary School will be collected again this year. Especially needed are backpacks, #2 pencils & boxes of Kleenex. Also still needed are wide rule spiral notebooks, rulers, large erasers, cap erasers & pencil sharpeners. Pullman provided us a list of needed items & specific quantities, & by taking advantage of some great sales, we have been able to fulfill some items fairly inexpensively. Check out the kiosk in the gathering area where you will find slips listing specific items that are still especially needed in large quantities & also envelopes for cash donations to cover some of our bulk purchases. Please take as many slips and/or envelopes as you are willing to donate. Most of the students at Pullman School are disadvantaged & this project is a means of helping the school assure that every student is prepared for another school year.

Breakfast with Baby - The next breakfast will be Saturday, August 14 at New Community 4th Church. Volunteers are always welcome - just be to the church by 9:30 am. Needs this month: diapers (newborn, 1,3 & 4), wipes and a Pack and Play.

When Helping Hurts – How to Alleviate Poverty Without Hurting the Poor... and Yourself Do you ever wonder if efforts to help the poor actually do any good? How can you truly make a difference in the lives of poor people? Come listen to Dr. Brian Fikkert (co-author of When Helping Hurts) and learn about some practical principles that are relevant for helping to accomplish a fundamental goal in giving. This event takes place August 25 from 7-9 pm at Park Christian Reformed Church. We'd like to get a group from Trinity to go (at no cost to you), so sign up by August 22 at the information table and we'll ride together (leaving church at 6:15 pm).
