With the beginning of the church program year, we are pleased to announce our next hymn sing. Join with friends and family at 6:00 PM on Sunday, September 15 for an evening of song. Deb Koopmans will be at the organ and John Taylor on the grand piano. Plan now to come and raise our voices together in praise to God. The offering will support the work of Samuel's Blankets (see back for details). A time of fellowship with pie and coffee following.

SAMUEL'S BLANKETS

Started in 2015 at age 9, Samuel wanted to do something to help the homeless stay warm in the winter. He set out with a mission, with each year growing more and more, people from all over joined together to help him and support his cause. Samuel knows that blankets get dirty and damaged when exposed to the elements after a while and wants to make sure those who need them will have one every year.

| | | | |
|------|-------|---------------|-----------------|
| 2015 | Goal: | 200 Blankets | Collected 320 |
| 2016 | Goal: | 400 Blankets | Collected 906 |
| 2017 | Goal: | 800 Blankets | Collected 1,626 |
| 2018 | Goal: | 1800 Blankets | Collected 2,585 |

2019 Goal is yet to be announced, but we are collecting at drop box locations!

This kid has a mission and a heart for the homeless, and has grown beyond Kalamazoo all of the way to Holland. Help Samuel meet his goal. Deposit your new or like-new blankets in the drop box located at Trinity beginning September 8. We will be collecting blankets through Thanksgiving.
