Here you'll learn about our upcoming sermon series on how we can know God through the world around us. You'll get an update on some changes coming to our Children & Worship program, as well as an invite to get involved! And flip a few more pages in and you'll find an update on our Churches In Mission Team, and you'll get a glimpse of the beautiful quilting work of Jan VanAuken in this month's Trinity Creates column. And a bonus column as we enter the nominations process again: notes from our elders and deacons about what it looks like to serve in this current season of our congregation's life.

Also, make sure you flip back to our Community Notes to get the latest on our bible studies and groups starting up this month, birthdays and anniversaries, the return of the 2nd Sunday Brunch, and an invitation to still sign up for the Bus Trip to Frederick Meijer Gardens coming up on September 12!

A snapshot from our August Community Picnic! There were chili dogs, ice cream, popsicles, epic games of checkers, sidewalk chalk, and good conversation! (Be sure to flip to the back to see a few more photos)

UPCOMING SERMON SERIES

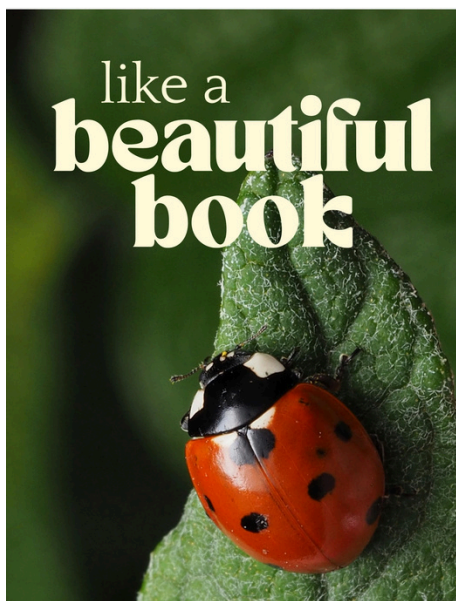

Like a Beautiful Book: Knowing God Through Creation

From September 1 to October 4, churches around the world and across traditions set aside 5 Sundays to explore what we can learn about God from the creation around us and about our responsibility as stewards and care-takers of what God has made. This year, we are joining them!

But in true Reformed fashion, we are grounding our reflection in the wisdom of The Belgic Confession. In Article 2, the Belgic lists the means by which we know God. The first way we know God is by the creation of the universe which is "before our eyes like a beautiful book in which all creatures great and small are letters to make us ponder the invisible things of God." So from the smallest lady bug to the largest polar bear, we can ponder the ways of God as we attend to the world God made.

If we pay attention to the creation that is "before our eyes like a beautiful book", what do we learn about God? What do we learn about how we are to live as God's people?

Let's ponder this beautiful book together!

September 6 | Psalm 19

The World and the Word

September 13 | Genesis 2:8-20

Our God and a Garden

September 20 | Genesis 9:1-17

A Rainbow and a Promise

September 27 | Colossians 1:15-20

The Cross and Creation

October 4 | Revelation 21:1-5, 22:1-5

A City and a Garden

We know God....by the creation, preservation, and government of the universe,
since that universe
is before our eyes
like a beautiful book
in which all creatures,
great and small,
are as letters
to make us ponder
the invisible things of God:
God's eternal power and divinity...

From Belgic Confession Article 2

The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge. They have no speech, they use no words;
no sound is heard from them.

Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.

From Psalm 19

TRINITY KIDS' CORNER

Check out these good children's books available at the Children's Worship area in the sanctuary!

We're trying something new!

As our younger ones have aged up and out of the Children & Worship curriculum, we're going to try a new thing from Sept-Dec.

During our new Children's Story Time (name still TBD!), leaders will use a short video format called The So&So Show which engages kids in bible stories with humor and a little slapstick fun. Each video will be framed by discussion and prayer and song!

And instead of every week, we are going to try a balance of in-worship and out-of-worship for our young ones. Children's Story Time will run on the 2nd and 3rd week of the month. This means our kids are always in worship when we come to the Table on the 1st Sunday - to either participate or become familiar with the sacrament.

All kiddos (and grandkids!) from kindergarten age to 5th grade are welcome to join!

And we'd love feedback from parents and kids as we try this new thing....

Sunday,
September 20
Children's Story
Time Begins!

All kids are welcome to join Mrs. Lori to chat about the
summer, sing songs,
and get re-connected
after the summer break!

Hey! Have you led Children & Worship before? Or want to know more before volunteering as a Story Time leader? Join Lori Kooyers after the service on Sunday, September 6 for a brief orientation and discussion for the fall!

CHURCHES IN MISSION UPDATE

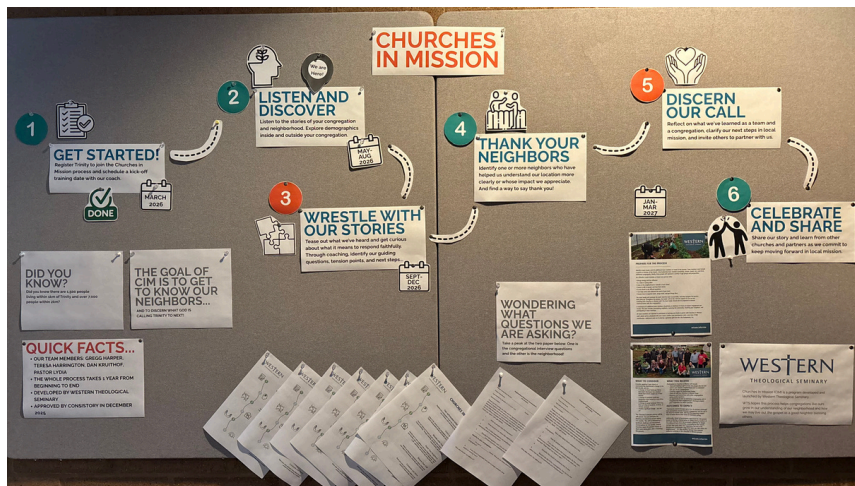

How is Churches in Mission Going?

The Churches in Mission Team has been working hard to listen well to our church congregants and neighbors. We are proud to say that we've conducted 40 interviews, which means we've gathered over 200 answers to questions that will shape a next step for Trinity's outreach ministry. We've also answered questions about demographics for our church and neighborhood; which will also give us clarity about the needs and passions we have in our communities.

The team awaits a reading packet this month, which Western Theological Seminary will provide now that we've completed the interviews. This reading packet will have information that will be an aid in helping the team tease out what we've heard and get curious about what it means to respond faithfully as a church. We hope to identify guiding questions, tension points, and next steps for local mission.

One team member remarks that the interview process has been:

"So insightful, I've discovered unexpected ways that people relate to one another. This has helped me realize the importance of asking instead of assuming I know how others think and engage within their community."

September | Reading Packet

We've completed our interviews and filled out demographic information. We will officially be done with the interview phase of CIM! Pastor Amanda will also be stepping in as the pastoral presence on the CIM team since Pastor Lydia has stepped down from her role.

Coming Up | October

The CIM Team will wrestle with what we have heard with the help of a coach from WTS. We will summarize our reflections and consider next steps.

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and mind. This is the first and most important command. And the second command is like the first: 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself'"
-Matthew 22:37-49

A NOTE FROM THE DEACONS

Dear Trinity Family,

It seems impossible to realize it's time to ask members of the congregation to serve as a member of our church consistory again. Last year when I provided an update of how much the deacons had taken care of and the projects that were started, I was approached by many members, who stated they had no idea the deacons were responsible for so many things in our church.

This past year has been busy again, but the pace has not been as frenetic! We have continued to gather information related to placing a pavilion in our church yard. The need for a covered, level place to gather was demonstrated again at our picnic a few weeks ago. You will hear about this on September 6th and 13th.

Working with Jim Allen the roof painting and subsequent sidewalk repair was done. The continuing maintenance of our church is becoming more intense as the church ages. Jim is great at coming up with innovative solutions!

The fence surrounding our a/c unit needed repairs and painting, again working with Jim a cost effective solution was found. We want our church grounds to reflect the care and love we have for our fantastic facility.

Personally, the biggest highlight of this past year was our consistory "retreat". The consistory members spent a long afternoon talking about what Trinity was in the past and how we see Trinity in the future. We certainly want to continue sharing our church with our community. Many ideas were presented, there needs to be discernment and planning around the ideas, but how exciting for our future!

The roof being painted in the fall of 2025.
Look at the difference!

As deacons we are charged with caring for congregants and community in a way that differs from the Elders. As such, we provide Gateway gift cards in a meaningful way to the community and care closet clients. We also oversee the benevolence fund. We have helped many in our community this year!

Personally, serving as deacon has been a blessing! My faith has deepened.... I've learned so much about Trinity! Done work that filled my soul and made lasting relationships with fellow consistory members.

If you are contacted and asked to consider serving as a deacon or an elder, I would encourage you to pray about what that would mean to you and how you would grow in your faith!

Jay Lynn Wheeler, Chair of Deacons

A NOTE FROM THE ELDERS

WHAT'S IT LIKE TO BE AN ELDER?

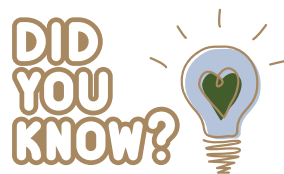

Might you be curious about being an Elder for your church? Let me share a little bit about what it is like to be a new Elder.

Let's start with a broad overview: Contact, Care, Prayer and Participate.

CONTACT

Every Elder has 20 or less contacts/families in their elder group. Make a call, send a card, text or email. Let them know you are their Elder.

Each elder is partnered with a deacon, to ensure we help care for all of our congregants needs!

CARE

As you get to know "your people" you will also know what concerns they have, what joys they have, and what sorrows they are experiencing.

PRAYER

Pray with your people, for your people and for their families. This is also a big part of caring.

PARTICIPATE

As part of the Consistory, you will participate in a monthly day time meeting. One month it will be just the Elders and the next month will be the full Consistory.

Last year, we held two bonus meetings...a Consistory Retreat in the fall and a budget workshop in the summer!

NO WORRIES

Please don't worry about what to do, what to know, what to say, when to say it, etc. You will have a past Elder Mentor who will help answer your questions!

These are just the basic duties of an elder. We have other tasks we help with throughout the year, such as communion or Sunday morning responsibilities on a 5-week rotating schedule (or what we call Elder In Charge).

This simply means you are the point person for a Sunday morning worship service. The responsibilities are simple, but your presence is important. See below what they would look like on a typical Sunday morning (once every 5-weeks).

- * Join pre-service worship prayer at 9am
- * Help deacons collect the offering
- * Consider (but not required!) leading the congregational prayer, when not covered.
- * Welcome guest preachers
- * Fill in greeting and other duties, as needed.

I hope this information has given you courage to pray and discern God's will for your participation in our Church family.

Dee Hubbard, Elder

Here's the 2nd installment of our new Connections column for 2026-2027! Over the course of the next year, we are exploring all the different ways we live into the image of our God through our creativity and craft.

This month, we highlight our very own Jan VanAuken who shares with us some of her creative work...

Q: What do you create?

Jan: Quilts of various sizes

Q: When and how did you begin creating this way?

Jan: I enjoyed sewing garments in my teen years and transitioned to quilting by using a kit for my first one, followed by using patterns.

Now I enjoy doing some of my own designing. I like cutting the fabric, running the sewing machine, some hand stitching, viewing the finished product, feeling the textures, the eye candy of colours, and giving them away.

Our creative work "is a reflection of God's creativity, an evidence that we are made in the image of God."

-Francis Schaeffer

Q: What is one of your favorite things you've created?

Jan: A 10'x10' quilt called "Color My World" which took 18 months to complete and won 2nd place in the Tulip Time Quilt show. It almost fills a wall in our home.

Q: How does creating in this way impact your connection with God?

Jan: Creativity is a process, so I've learned to enjoy the process, not only the finished product. I imagine God enjoys the process of shaping us, his creatures.

I hope my quilts bless the recipients, both family and friends, known and unknown, with joy and comfort and love. Sometimes I get feedback and that is icing on the cake.

I pray for the recipients as I construct the quilts.

Top: A quilt made for a grandchild

Below: A smaller quilt intended for wall-hanging or as a table-topper

A Prayer for Quilting

Guide my hands to work as Your hands work, to know the power of Your love in every stitch I make, in every thread I knot. May my hands be guided by the same love and care with every quilt I make, knowing that this love and care was and is and will continue to be a gift of blessing to the one it is intended for.

May the works of my hands be pleasing in Your sight, O God. Lord, bless my work today.

As I choose materials and patterns, may I be reminded of the uniqueness You blessed us all with.

As I cut each length of thread, may I be reminded of the doors that must be closed in our lives so that a new and stronger door may be opened.

As I twist each knot, may I be reminded of a bond of love so strong, nothing will break it.

As I sew each stitch, may I be reminded of the healing power of Your grace in each of us.

As I concentrate on my craft, may I be reminded of the love and care You put into each of our lives.

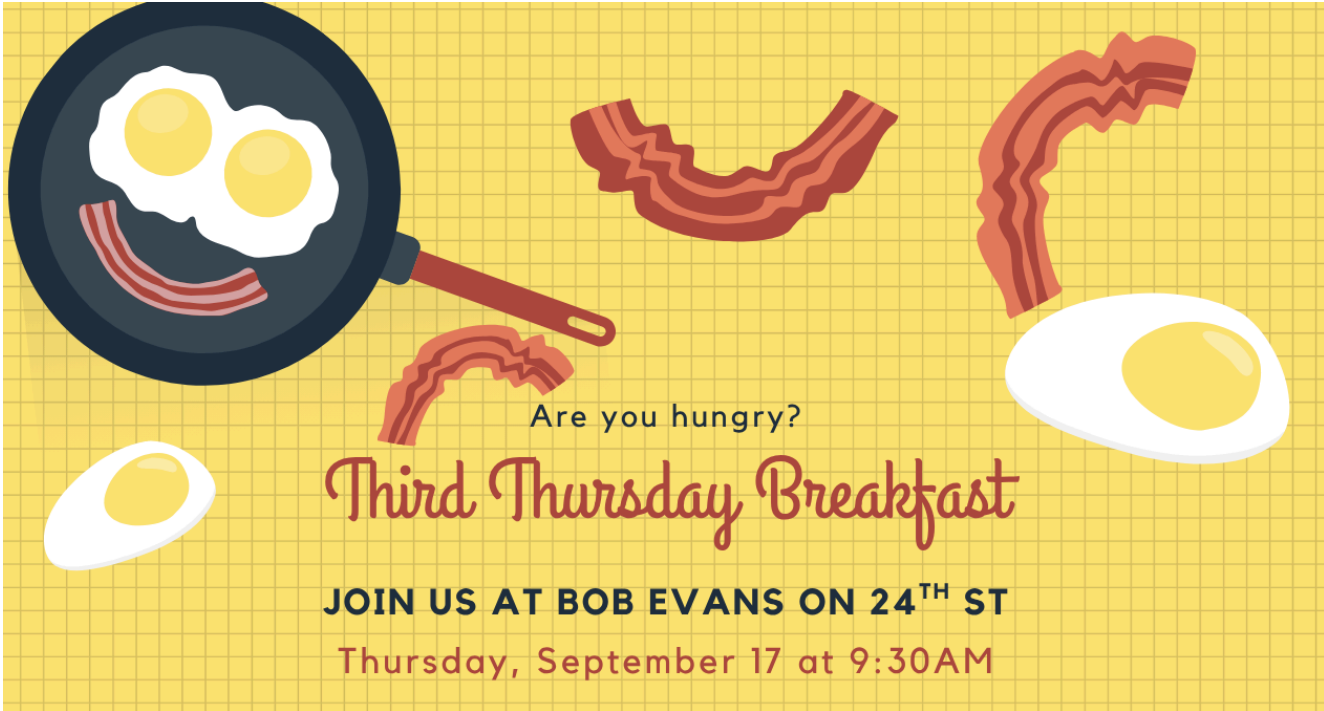

As I add my last stitch, tie my last knot, cut the final cord, may I be reminded of the completeness with which You commanded in each of us before we were ever given to this life.

Psalm 91

You have an angel
right by your side
taking care of you
both day and night
when trials befall
and you struggle with it all

Look at your angel
and you will not fall

Though you may hurt

Clench your fist
Open your hand
Pretend a kiss

your angel

will catch your kiss
in her hand

Now you stand and walk away

You will be fine today
