Men's Wednesday Morning Bible Study: "Basically the Christian faith is presented as good news. In many churches the good news has subtly changed into good advice. Here's how to live .. here's how to pray... here's how to make sure you're on the right track for what happens after death. Now, there's nothing wrong with good advice. We all need it. But it isn't the same as news. News is an announcement that something significant has happened. And good news is what Jesus and his first followers were all about."

Why the gospel is news and what makes it good? That is what the men's morning bible study will be exploring using N. T. Wright's book Simply Good News as a resource.

The group meets at 7:30 each Wednesday morning in the Connection Cafe for a one hour discussion beginning September 6.

Bill VanAuken has a copy of the book for you. Join us when you can.
